

Artist Guitars Research

Select an artist from “the hat” as a random drawing, and begin to research information about your artist. A good place to start would be: <http://www.artcyclopedia.com> or <http://www.artchive.com>. These sites will likely send you other places to look as well.

You will want to save 2-3 images created by your artist for reference when you design your guitar. Save those images where you can easily find them later.
